Plans Laid for Fine Time During Jun ior Prom Week.

The class of 1921 at Norwich univer sity plans to make junior prom week, which begins Thursday, April 20, and continues to Sunday, May 2, the best of its kind ever given at the institution, and to this end has a large, vigor. ous committee working incessantly. The week opens with the junior prom Thursday evening, April 29, in the armory hall, which is to be artistically decorated by a Boston decorating firm in time for the event of the year. Carroll's orchestra will furnish music.

The feature event of the second day is the horse show. The arrangements are under the direct supervision of Col. rank Tompkins, commandant of the adet corps, and one of the best cavalry len, and special ribbons will be awarded by Col. Tompkins. In this event will figure several colts of the Diamond ranch of Wyoming that have been trained by members of the corps. officers in the service of the United of horsemanship taught at Norwich and the skill with which the men can handle all weapons with which cavalrymen are equipped. As to the baseball game, there is no doubt but what it will be fast, since Norwich will have St. Michael's college nine to battle against. The university team, it is understood, has all indications of being very good this season.

On Saturday evening a movie dance is to be held in Dewey hall, and this being a new method of entertaining at Norwich, it will without question gain commendation.
